Chapel Service

At Wednesday chapel service, David R. Porter, recently appointed head of the Mount Hermon administrative committee, was speaker. Mr. Porter took for his text the sentence from John, "they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses." Jesus approved of the fine and beautiful things of life but he condemned too great ease in living. With this distinction in mind Mr. Porter spoke of the necessity of self-imposed discipline in every-day life, whether it be at home or in school.

Seminary Music Department

The Seminary choir this year are following a class organization with Seniors and sophomores as sister classes forming one choir, the juniors and freshmen forming the other. Each of the two choirs contain a few High School graduates and members of the Certificate Group. This system will enable the music and gymnasium departments to work together more efficiently than was the case last year. About sixty students from last year's two choirs have been carrying on the work which the new choirs will take up.

The members of last year's Estey Chorus have held two meetings. Appointments for the group of new girls will soon be made. Miss Gladys Grindeland, recently of Union Theological Seminary, is a most valuable addition to the music faculty. She will assist in all phases of the work: choral, organ, sight-reading classes, teaching voice and piano. There is a large enrollment in the music department; forty studying piano, and many interested in voice. Some are also taking violin and organ lessons.

Whittle Orchestra has at present some unusual new talent in three cellists, an excellent flutist, trumpeters and clarinet players, and a number of violinists. Mrs. Peterson, the orchestra conductor, is organizing a string ensemble class to meet once a week.

For the near future a Sunday evening choral musicale is being planned.

"Man from Vermont"

Charles Moss Taggart, a Hermon graduate, who is known as the "man from Vermont", gave a most entertaining program in Silverthorne Hall on Saturday evening. His ability as a fiddler, musical humorist and story teller has kept him much in demand by church clubs, school banquets, women's clubs, etc., and he is a Victor, Columbia, Edison and radio artist.

Mr. Taggart calls his program "Fun with Music" and has taught his fiddle to perform in a most unobtrusive manner, playing it in most unnatural positions. He is known as the creator of the country fiddle records and plays no jazz. A group of old Scotch tunes such as "Coming through the Rye" and "Loch Lomond" opened the program. In imitating Mr. Taggart was most skilful and the poems "Twinkle Little Star" and "Mary had a little lamb" were very well rendered as were the calls of such birds as Teacher bird, chickadee, canary, and bob white.

As to humor Mr. Taggart was at his best. His many jokes kept the audience in uproar. A humorous poem "Calf in the Yard" by Sam Frost was acted out and was most amusing. Added performances at the piano, including a ventriloquist act brought much laughter from the house. His various means of entertaining were furthered by singing an old camping song of William Henry Harrison, playing the fife, giving a classical piece "Pop goes the weasel" on the fiddle, impersonating a famed professor playing the piano, etc., and were excellently performed. Mr. Taggart closed his evening's entertainment by playing most beautifully the well known Doinxology, and did it in such a manner that without watching one would truly think he was hearing the organ.

Mr. Taggart told the press reporter after the entertainment that he was pleased to come back to Northfield for two of his girls are graduates of the school. He added that Northfield girls are the finest in the world.

SACRED CONCERT

Next Sunday evening the choir of the Trinitarian church will give an hour of sacred song at the evening service at 8 o'clock, under the supervision of Prof. Irving F. Lawrence. Among the pieces that will be rendered are to be: "I Love the Lord," Hooper; "Te Deum in B Flat," Hooper; "Vesper Hymn," old Russian melody; "Steal Away," Negro spiritual. A mixed quartet will sing "Dream of Calvary" Morrison, and a male chorus will give a number. There will also be a few congregational hymns.

A cordial welcome is extended to all who love worshipful music to attend. A altar offering will be received toward choir expenses.

It's a Great Old Game!

BY LAWRENCE HAWTHORNE

We talk about our troubles,
And we think about our fears;
We wonder what will happen
In the coming months and years;
We worry, and we grumble,
And we dread, and we complain—
And we're just about decided Life is mostly grief and pain!

We read about depressions,
And we hear about hard luck;
We lose our jobs or incomes,
And we almost lose our pluck;
We view a long procession
Of misfortunes, woes and ills,
And we find ourselves surrounded
By our taxes, debts and bills!

And then, my friend, what happens?
Well, there comes a day in Spring
When all this grief and worry
Simply doesn't mean a thing!
The batter and the pitcher
Get their orders to begin—
And the only thing that matters
Is to have the home team win!

Each team has won one game. Series are being broadcast for next Three Days at 2:30 on nearly all stations. Ford Motor Co. paid $100,000 for privilege of broadcasting these games.

Garden Club

I have been planning, for some time, to write a series of articles on famous gardens of the world, and where else could one begin, but with the World's First and best-known garden, the Garden of Eden. We really know so little about this garden that it bloomed in the World's youth. And yet, there is scarcely a day that we do not hear it mentioned in some way. In Gen. 2:8-14, we read that "The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed. And of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; the Tree of Life also in the midst of the garden, and the Tree of Good and Evil." And going on we read of the river that flowed out of the garden, the river that parted and made four heads, watering all the surrounding country, but that is all. Beyond that, is mere conjecture. Some scholars place the site of the garden in a mountainous region, others on the plains. Every little while we read that someone has discovered the original site of the Garden of Eden, but nothing is proved. The general opinion places it somewhere in Arabia, but after all, what does it matter. It is the one garden that all mankind can call their own. The very meagerness and vagueness of the description endears it the more to our hearts, for it leaves each of us free to plant it as we will.

It is a dream garden, a garden of subtle fragrance and untold charm. The sky is bluer there, and the grass thicker and greener. Flowers, with satin-soft petals away from every branch and shrub, and their fragrance haunts the air like a half-forgotten dream. The trees bend to the ground with their loads of luscious fruit and birds fill the air with melody through the long sunny hours. It is a garden where fear is unknown, a garden of innocence and eternal youth. Life there is always at the flood, there is no sickness, no pain and no death. It is the perfect retreat made by the Lord God for the weary one of earth. It vanished from our sight ages ago, but the dream lives on in our hearts, free from taint or spot. We have but to close eyes and the Garden blooms again. We see the shining river flowing serenely toward the sea, we see the lilies standing in snowy purity on its banks, we catch the odor of roses withered ages ago and hear the soft rustle of angels' wings among the ferns. The Garden of Eden is not lost, we keep it fast, for it is one of God's promises to man. It is just a glimpse of Paradise to show us the way back home.

Northfield Farms

Miss Virginia Fish spent the week-end with her parents on Christian Hill.

Mrs. Julia Thompson is spending Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Purinton in Colrain.

Fortnightly Corner

The first meeting of the Fortnightly Club will be held this afternoon at the Chateau, and not at Alexander Hall. Members are asked to come any time after two o'clock to qualify and receive the new program for the year. The meeting will open promptly at 8 o'clock. Rev. Father P. E. Cary will speak briefly on what the Catholic church is doing in the "Movie Cleanup." Mrs. Bernard Sabean will follow with an address on "Our Responsibility toward the Moving Pictures and the Public." Guests are especially invited.

High School Notes

Jeff Giebel has entered Stockbridge School at Massachusetts State College, Amherst.

Last Tuesday afternoon the student body was entertained by the faculty. First, the students sang songs under the director of Mr. Taylor and accompanied by Marian Leach.

Then the play "They Criticized, and How!" was presented. The cast was: Mrs. Amy Black, a lady of culture, Miss Julia Austin; Mrs. Helen Freen, who loved her slang; Miss Evelyn Lawley; Mrs. May White, who made delicious (?) Parker House rolls, Miss Mildred Hunt; Miss Jean Rose, a lady of style, Miss Marian Mann.

The setting was in the living room of Mrs. Amy Black's where there was to be a meeting of the four members of the Culture Club. At this meeting each member was to bring three slips criticizing the others and receive three criticisms. They did, and how!

The parts were very well taken and the play was enjoyed immensely by the audience! As his part of the program Mr. Taylor told some spicy jokes and read a "Just So" story by Rudyard Kipling, all of which were most entertaining.

The members of the Senior Class are:

Eleanor Long, President
Stanley Newton, Vice-president
Marian Leach, Secretary
Evelyn Johnson, Treasurer

Fall Sports Begin

Wednesday afternoon the first of the interclass soccer and football games were run off, thus opening the sports program for the fall. Intramural games will constitute the entire schedule until November, when interscholastics will supplement it.

Axel B. Forslund, Director of Athletics, this week announced the schedule for outside games in fall sports. Williston Academy will again be Hermon's opponent, carrying on the relations begun last year, when Mount Hermon reentered interscholastics after an intramural policy of thirty-seven years. The fall sports with Williston are as follows:

Football
Nov. 7—Junior Varsity at Hermon. Nov. 17—Varsity at Easthampton.

Soccer
Nov. 7—Junior varsity at Easthampton. Nov. 17—Varsity at Mount Hermon.

The coaching staff has been increased this year by the addition of several new members. The complete personnel includes the following: Football—head coach, Thorolf M. Hendriksen; Harlan L. Baxter, Lawrence L. Daggett, Arthur D. Platt. Soccer: Mr. Forslund and Malcolm E. Foster. Cross-Country—Francis Bayley. Tennis: Eugene P. Link and Edmund Lucas. The Junior League, the athletic organization for boys under sixteen, will be under the direction of Robert H. Laughlin.

During the summer many enlargements and improvements on the athletic field were started, including a new 220-yard straightaway, now under construction.

Rope Pull Postponed
This afternoon, weather permitting, the traditional rope-pull between the senior and junior classes will be held on Shadow Lake, at two-thirty. The event was scheduled for last Friday, and both classes marched to the scene, resplendent, immaculate, and confident in white duck trousers and shirts. Promptly at three, Mr. Forslund fired the shot heard round the campus as a signal for the beginning of the tug-of-war.

Both classes strained the rope strained—the rope broke. After a huddle and a conference the class leaders decided to knot the rope and try again. The rope broke again. It was then decided to postpone the pull until this week, allowing time to procure a new rope and to concoct new plans and strategies. Although the pond was drained several weeks ago, and there is very little water in it, there is enough mud to satisfy the best instincts of both classes. The seniors have four more men than the juniors, but the younger class has attempted to balance numbers and weight by requesting the loan of an international truck from the farm department.

VICTORY PARADE

The Republican Victory Parade paid its visit to Northfield on Friday, just a few minutes behind schedule. About 150 people were on hand to welcome the candidates. The Town Hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and autumn leaves. Joseph Feld in his usual public spirited manner had made the reception room a place of beauty.

Theodore Darby presided at the meeting and introduced John W. Haigis, who was the first speaker and who then introduced the other candidates. Mr. Haigis spoke of his interest in Northfield and Franklin County and his desire to get out every single voter who desires an honest administration in Massachusetts for the next two years. He introduced Gaspar G. Bacon as the next governor of Mass. Mr. Bacon made a fine impression upon his audience. His absolute sincerity and his vigor of speech and action gave his hearers an insight into the character of the gentleman who is to lead the party to victory on Nov. 6th. He spoke for honest government on Beacon Hill for the next two years. He mentioned his opponent as an able campaigner and one who was not afraid to exaggerate. He spoke of the fact that Boston always had to take time out to recover financially after every one of his opponent's mayoralty terms.

Other speakers were Frederick Cook, Joseph Warner and J. Arthur Baker.

The party left for Erving at a late hour and were to continue through to Orange for an evening meeting.

The Victory Parade is receiving a great reception in the towns of the state and will add greatly to the chances of victory on Nov. 6th when the fate of Massachusetts will lie in the hands of every voter in the smaller towns.

EDITORIAL*TAX INJUSTICE KEEPS
WORK AND WAGES
OUT OF BAY STATE

Cotton Tax Alone Could Give Workers $3.50 Raise

Massachusetts is one of the ten States paying the heaviest taxes to the national government in Washington. Many of these taxes are HIDDEN so that you do not know you pay them. But you PAY just the same. This group of States puts up almost THREE QUAR-TERS of the internal revenue used to pay the government's bill. But when Uncle Sam hands out the benefits they average LESS THAN HALF of the totals which are passed around to all the other States.

None of this takes in the new national SALES TAX or "processing tax," as the Democrats prefer to call it. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, Massachusetts contributed $21,581,909 in "processing taxes." (In case you didn't happen to know, this tax is imposed on food and clothing materials. It is paid by the manufacturer and passed on to the ordinary person in higher prices).
 Well, we in Massachusetts paid $21,581,909 and what did we get back? We got back in A.A.A. benefits the ridiculous sum of $105,785.

A large part of this tax is paid on cotton and is then sent down South to the farmers to pay them for not growing cotton and thus to put the price of cotton up. If only HALF of this money had been paid out to the cotton textile workers of Massachusetts they would have averaged about $3.50 extra per week during the fiscal year just ended. We believe every worker would have been glad to get this extra $3.50. We ask: Is the southern and western farmer better than the Massachusetts worker?

Only determined opposition can stop this injustice. That is why we say: "Save Massachusetts."

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

The Eastern Convention of the Laymen's League, of which Northfield's honored citizen Herbert C.
 Parsons is president, was interesting though not largely attended.
 The first arrivals Friday found Northfield alluring in warm autumn sunshine and clear air; but Saturday showed what could be done by a steady down pour of rain. This necessitated the cancelling of all local plans for the showing to our guests "Northfield the Beautiful," and the reception in honor of Mr. Parsons at Stone-leigh-Prospect School.

Among the high lights of the meetings was the address given by Maurice Taylor, director of Jewish Welfare in Boston, who showed convincingly the advisability and practicability of this country beginning at once to lay plans for unemployment insurance, since unemployment always must exist to a greater or less degree. Payson Smith, Mass. Commissioner of Education, showed the high place the education of the individual had taken to give to the world the best in medicine, surgery, science, art, letters. The great need now is for the education of the individual in the highest in morals and spiritual power to lead the world. Bradford E. Gale, National President of the Young People's Religious Union, the youngest speaker of all the sessions, thrilled and convinced hearers as he threw one challenge after another from youth to maturity to help realize in society the great realities, the universal principles of life.

The Sunday morning service held in the local church was largely attended. The quartet choir of All Souls' Church of Greenfield were an inspiration and Rev. Miles Carmon of Roxbury, Mass., gave a quiet but very convincing sermon on "Power" shown in every life interest; but realized at its highest point in the Power of the Spirit as revealed by Jesus the Master of life.

From every guest came words of appreciation for the royal treatment given by Northfield Hotel and the people generally. They all want to come again.

CLUB

 year will open at 7:30 o'clock, Friday, October 12th, and contin-

A new leisure has been brought to the modern business man through fast transportation, and a new leisure has been brought to his wife through the use of electricity in the home.

The electric range, for instance, with its fast heating units and accurate controls, has speeded up the work of the kitchen and made cooking a pleasure.

Learn for yourself how electricity meets today's demand for speed in the kitchen... see your local electric range dealer—it will cost nothing to investigate.

AMERICA'S GREAT TRUCK VALUE

NOW—GREATER THAN EVER—DUE TO LOWER FREIGHT RATES!

The FORD V-8 alone offers all these 5 important truck features

RECENT decreases in freight rates are being passed on to you in the form of further substantial reduction in delivered prices of Ford V-8 Trucks. These reductions became effective September 15th.

That's great news. But think how much more than first-cost saving the Ford V-8 offers you.
Think of the power of this rugged, 80-horsepower V-8. Then look into gas and oil costs.
They're at new "lows"—both of them. Look into upkeep. Truck-built throughout, the new Ford V-8 will "take" punishment that used to mean the repair shop.

But talk to Ford V-8 users themselves. They'll tell you a story of performance and economy that sounds like high-priced trucking... instead of the lowest-priced you can get!

James Bolton
The passing of James Bolton, at the age of eighty-nine, leaves all who knew him with a sense of regret, not alone at losing a friend, but it recalls the fact that it was he and many like him who have been the very backbone of New England life. He died Sept. 26 in the home at South Winchester, in which he was born Oct. 3, 1844. In August 1862 he enlisted in the service and was attached to Company F, the 14th regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers for the duration of the war. He fought in the battle of Opequan in the Shenandoah Valley, one of the final and decisive battles of the Civil War. It was in this battle on Sept. 19, 1864 that he received a gunshot wound in his shoulder, which kept him in the hospital in Philadelphia for a year, and which gave him much trouble all through his life. He married Emily Carlton Jan. 1st 1877 and to them were born eleven children, all of whom were born in the old homestead with the exception of one girl, Marietta, who was born at the old Davis home further up the road. Emily Carlton Bolton died Nov. 11, 1924. Mr. Bolton leaves one sister, Ida M. Shaw of Mt. Vernon N. Y., on whose 78th birthday he died. He also leaves one daughter, Mrs. Leon Davis of South Winchester and five sons, Hiram of Ashuelot, Arthur and George of West Northfield, Mass. Lee of East Northfield and Philip at home, and ten grand-children. The funeral was from the homestead Saturday afternoon with Rev. Carne of the Congregational Church of Northfield officiating. The profusion of beautiful flowers testified to the esteem in which Mr. Bolton was held. He was the last Civil War Veteran in the town of Winchester.
